

JUNIOR JAZZ

PARTICIPATION PACKET
2024-25

Thank you for playing Junior Jazz this season! We are excited to announce new jersey designs not only for Junior Jazz, but also for the Jazz team! The new 24–25 Jazz jerseys were announced in a video featuring youth basketball players from around the state of Utah.

Watch the video with this link: <https://www.nba.com/jazz/mountain-basketball>

Utah is the home to the most basketball courts per capita in the nation! With almost 70,000 participants, Junior Jazz is also the largest youth basketball program in the NBA, and we are glad you are a part of it. Junior Jazz is such an important part of the Jazz organization! Our Junior Jazz players will even be able to wear the new Midnight Black Mountain jerseys before the Jazz players transition to them in January.

Don't forget to check out our website for updated resources including the digital Coaching Packet, Find Your League Page as well as other Junior Jazz resources.

Thank you for participating in the Junior Jazz program this season.

Thanks and GO JAZZ!

GOOD SPORTS UTAH

We invite you to be a leader with your team this season. The Good Sports Utah Initiative calls on all of us to be kinder and more respectful with our words and actions.

Instead of focusing on negative conduct that can occur during sporting events, such as taunting, discrimination and name calling, we hope this program will take the lead on encouraging the positives. We want to empower athletes, coaches, parents, referees and fans to emphasize the following principles:

RESPECT LEADERSHIP
KINDNESS
SPORTSMANSHIP
POSITIVITY

At every game, one person from each team will be selected who has exemplified at least one of the five values above. This person should be selected by the opposing team's coach. The winners will be invited to attend the Junior Jazz Good Sports Utah celebration in the spring. Details will be provided to each winner. Winners can include players, coaches, parents, fans, officials or staff members.
